PRESIDENT MOUL PRESIDING

PRESIDENT MOUL: (Microphone not activated.) ...Charles Tyler of St. John A.M.E. Church in Omaha, in Senator Pirsch's district. Pastor Tyler.

PASTOR TYLER: (Prayer offered.)

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Pastor Tyler. I now call to order the sixty-fifth day of the Ninety-Third Legislature, First Session. We will proceed with roll call. Please record your presence.

CLERK: I have a quorum present, Madam President.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Are there any corrections to the Journal?

CLERK: Madam President, no corrections this morning.

PRESIDENT MOUL: The Journal is approved. Are there any messages, reports or announcements?

CLERK: The report of registered lobbyists for the week of April 14th through the 21st will be inserted in the Journal. And I have amendments to be printed by Senator Wesely to LB 253. That's all that I have, Madam President. (See pages 1675-76 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Next item on the agenda is legislative resolutions, LR 80.

CLERK: LR 80, offered by Senator Landis, is found on page 1647 of the Journal.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you, Madam Speaker, members of the Legislature. Deans of law schools move around very, very quickly around the country in an escalating salaries. It's rare to have one stay ten years to be a nationally known, probably the leading the expert on copyright law, the most...probably the most published writer and most authoritative figure in it. Has also had a tremendous hand at expanding the resources of the law school in the private sector by gifts and alumni contributions.
